

METAMORPHOSA™

Acer palmatum 'ARJOS1'

pp#32,420m cbraf

Common name: Japanese maple

Landscape Info:
USDA zones:	5b-8
Mature height:	5-13'/1.5-3.9m
Exposure:	Sun-part sun
Irrigation:	Average

Features & Benefits:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Own-root Japanese maple with a shrubby habit - Foliage emerges yellow and pink in spring, becomes variegated in the season, and turns orange, then red in autumn - Excellent choice for texture and color in the landscape or garden

Cultural info:
pH Level:	5.6 – 6.2
Nutrient Needs:	Average
EC (2:1 extract):	0.6 – 0.9
Light Level:	Average; benefits from some shade
Watering:	Average
Rooting Out Temp:	65 – 72°F/18.3 – 22.2°C
Overwintering Temp:	Polyhouse, no heat (where hardy)
Sales Window:	Spring - autumn
Blooms On:	Old wood; blooms insignificant
Trimming/pruning:	As needed to shape; see notes
Vernalization:	Not required
Vigor Rating:	Average
Finish Size	Liner Size	Weeks of Active Growth to Finish
1 gallon	QT	8-10
2 - 3 gallon	QT	16-18

Grower Tips:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This plant should be shaped as needed for best presentation as it fills out its container. • Makes a good crop to grow as an understory to taller crops that might overly shade other varieties.
NOTES: