

CUT FLOWERS

Stay profitable from spring through frost with Proven Winners® ColorChoice® shrubs. What makes these plants the choice of gardeners makes them ideal for cut flower growers, too: unique colors, bigger flowers, longer bloom times, disease resistance. Season after season, you can rely on their beauty and productivity to bring top dollar and repeat business at market. Request a spreadsheet covering our complete cut flower selection from your account manager.

 Flowers
  Fragrance
  Fruit/Seed Heads
  Deciduous Foliage
  Evergreen Foliage
  Stems

Spring

When your customers have spring fever, you'll have the cure – in bunches. From traditional cuts like forsythia to the unexpected (and astonishingly fragrant) hardy abelia, look to these varieties to jump-start the season. All are suitable for forcing.

Variety	Zone	Features
SWEET EMOTION® abelia (pictured)	4
FLYING MACHINE® forsythia	6
SHOW OFF® forsythia	5
BLOOMERANG® lilac series	3
SCENTARA® lilac series	2
BLACK CAT® pussywillow	4
DOUBLE TAKE™ quince series	5
WEDDING CAKE® spirea	4

Summer

The competitive wedding and farmer's market season requires you to stand out from the crowd. Find your niche with a selection of colorful stems in all sizes and styles, from old-fashioned and elegant to contemporary and quirky. Many are reblooming, ensuring the longest sales window.

Variety	Zone	Features
SUGAR SHACK® buttonbush	4
'Sweet Summer Love' clematis (pictured)	4
'Scentsation' honeysuckle	5
LET'S DANCE® bigleaf hydrangea series (H. macrophylla)	5
Panicle hydrangeas (H. paniculata)	3
Smooth hydrangeas (H. arborescens)	3
SUGARTINA® 'Crystalina' summersweet	4
'Aphrodite' (pictured) & SIMPLY SCENTSATIONAL® sweetshrub	5b

Fall

Color is king in autumn, as a chill comes into the air and the events season starts up. While fabulous foliage never goes out of style, a program that includes the unexpected color of purple callicarpa and orange viburnum provides a delightfully unexpected selection of cuts for designers and hobbyists alike.

Variety	Zone	Features
PEARL GLAM® beautyberry	5
PROUD BERRY® coral berry	3
RED ROVER® silky dogwood	4
GATSBY oakleaf hydrangea (H. quercifolia)	5
TEMPLE OF BLOOM® seven-son flower	5
ALL THAT GLITTERS® & ALL THAT GLOWS® viburnum	4
BRANDYWINE™ viburnum	5
RED BALLOON® viburnum	4
TANDOORI ORANGE® viburnum	4
MY MONET® 'Sunset' weigela	5

Winter

Wintertime brings a market hungry for greenery and colorful branches. From individual stems for anchoring seasonal containers to bundles of fragrant evergreens for wreaths and swags, these shrubs ensure your season ends on a high note.

Variety	Zone	Features
Arborvitae (Thuja sp.)	3
SPRINTER® boxwood	5
ARCTIC FIRE® series & ARCTIC SUN® dogwood	2/4
False cypress (Chamaecyparis sp.)	4/5
Blue holly (Ilex x meserveae)	5
Winterberry holly (Ilex verticillata) (pictured)	3

Foliage

Foliage cuts round out bouquets and displays. A wide range of exceptional color and texture means these productive shrubs aren't just ordinary filler.

Variety	Zone	Features
SICILIAN SUNSHINE® bay	8
CENTER STAGE® & RIKKI TIKKI® series crapemyrtle	6/7
KODIAK® diervilla series	4/5
JAZZ HANDS® loropetalum series	7b
Ninebark (Physocarpus) (pictured)	3
GOLDEN TICKET® privet	5
FINE LINE® Improved rhamnus	2
WINECRAFT® series & THE VELVET FOG® smokebush	4
SHINY DANCER® viburnum (pictured)	6
YIN® & YANG® viburnum	7b
MIDNIGHT WINE SHINE™ weigela	4
WINE & ROSES® weigela	4
Wintercreeper (Euonymus fortunei)	5

