

BLACK CAT[®]

Salix sp. 'Lubber's Zwart' pp#27,403; cbraf

Extra-large black catkins appear in late winter, giving this plant unique appeal for cut flower sales as well as in the landscape. Larger catkins than Salix gracilistyla 'Melanostachys'. This is a novel addition to cutting gardens and country-style borders.

- SIZE & SHAPE
10 - 12' TALL
AND WIDE

- SPACING 10 - 13'
- USDA 4, AHS 7
- FULL SUN

DEER-RESISTANT | CUT BRANCHES | CLAY SOIL | WET SOIL

